PROPOSALS TO EXPAND PRIMARY PROVISION AT TWO SCHOOLS IN LEEDS FROM SEPTEMBER 2012

Notice is given in accordance with section 19(1) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 that Leeds City Council intends to make a prescribed alteration to two primary schools in Leeds. These proposals are not linked; that is they are not related and each will be considered on its own merits.

1. PROPOSAL TO EXPAND BRACKEN EDGE PRIMARY SCHOOL

A prescribed alteration to Bracken Edge (Community) Primary School, Newton Garth, Newton Road, Leeds, LS7 4HE from 1st September 2012.

The proposal is to expand the school from its current capacity of 315 pupils to 420 pupils.

The current number of pupils registered at the school, taken from the January 2011 census is 292.

The current admission number for the school is 45 and the proposed admission number will be 60. The school will gradually increase to its maximum capacity by taking increased reception intakes from 1st September 2012.

2. PROPOSAL TO EXPAND WYKEBECK PRIMARY SCHOOL

A prescribed alteration to Wykebeck (Community) Primary School, Brander Street, Wykebeck, Leeds, LS9 6QH from 1st September 2012.

The proposal is to expand the school from its current capacity of 315 pupils to 420 pupils.

The current number of pupils registered at the school, taken from the January 2011 census is 195.

The current admission number for the school is 45 and the proposed admission number will be 60. The school will gradually increase to its maximum capacity by taking increased reception intakes from 1st September 2012.

COMMENTS COMMON TO BOTH PROPOSALS

No new or additional site is required for these changes, and both schools will expand within their existing premises. Some additional building and/or remodeling of existing buildings will be required within the existing sites. This will be phased in agreement with the schools, and subject to the normal planning permission process.
